

Mr. Antoine Mellado, Director of Advocacy

Antoine was born in Seville, Spain. He lived between there and Murcia until the age of eighteen when he decided to move to Louvain-la-Neuve, Belgium to go to the University, which is one of the closest to the Institutions of the European Union. He has a Bachelor's degree (BA) in political science and a Masters (MA) in European Studies research from the Université Catholique de Louvain. Before working with WYA he was a European Delegate of Family Watch and the International Federation of Family Development. He has also been invested in different Belgian political, social and cultural movements that always promote a society that is centered on the human person.
